

World Economic Forum

Terms of Conditions for the Image Database

The World Economic Forum publishes high resolution pictures on the Internet as a media service. This service is provided by swiss-image.ch.

After the individual registration at www.weforum.org every entitled media partner receives a global or individual password, that enables the access to the entire or parts of the picture archive of the World Economic Forum.

1. Global or individual passwords are only allowed to be used within the same editorial office. Apart from this group, further circulation of a password is prohibited.
2. The download entitled medias (newspapers, magazines, tv-stations, news websites) and partners are allowed to publish pictures, that they have got from the www.weforum.org in their publication in the editorial part without paying a fee, as far as the general conditions of the World Economic Forum are not broken in any way.
3. Pictures of the World Economic are not allowed to be manipulated nor is it allowed to falsify the meaning of the picture in an image manipulation program. The central sense of the picture is not permitted to be changed.
4. The download entitled medias and partners receive with the download the permission to publish the picture(s) once in the editorial part of their publication.
5. Every published picture must carry the by-line (picture World Economic Forum/photographers name) or (photo World Economic Forum). By-lines reading (picture made available by/ courtesy of) or (picture media service) are not acceptable.
6. It is forbidden to duplicate the pictures of the World Economic Forum for commercial use. It is also forbidden to trade the pictures, to circulate and sell them to photo agencies or to store them in a digital or analogous picture archive in order to resell them. News websites may not make any picture available for download (ftp or http download); pictures may be placed on the website with editorial content with a maximum resolution of 1024 pixels (longer side of image).
7. The use of World Economic Forum pictures is prohibited for any other purpose (advertising, internet) without written permission from the World Economic Forum or the copyright holder (photographer). The copyright and any other right of the pictures and texts of swiss-image.ch remain in any case at Swiss-Image GmbH, the SI partner or/and the originator of the pictures.
8. Any misuse of World Economic Forum pictures will lead to an access stop to www.weforum.org – media photos, in consequence to civil action under article 61 ff of the copyright law (Urheberrechtsgesetz URG) as well as a charge under article 67 ff URG.
9. Everyone who logs in the photo base of the World Economic Forum with an user name and a password or gets other access to the picture archive of the World Economic Forum and downloads one or several pictures, automatically accepts the general conditions of the World Economic Forums' photo base.
10. The judicial authority is Cologne, Switzerland. Swiss law is applicable.